A VANISHED HAND.

We sing for the touch of a vanished hand—Who has passed from our side to the shadowy Nut.

But, what of the hand that it near?

To the Dying's touch is the soul inert.

For the love that lives in our hand alert.

With a touch of a vanished hand,

And a word from the lips that stand silent,

There comes a touch of a vanished life!

The hundred sounds must bear?

With a touch of a vanished hand,

But, what of the friends that stand silent,

And the touch of the lips that stand silent?

BURNED TO DEATH.

Mother and Four Children Perished in Their Burning Home
Near Altoona, Pa.

CHARRED BEYOND RECOGNITION.

The Husband Was Seriously Burned About the Back While Attempting to Rescuse the Family.

It is Thought the Blaze Was Started By the Family Dog Upsetting a Lamp That Was Left Lit.

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 2.—Mrs. Mary C. Burk and her four children, Adam, aged 16 years; Mary, aged 13; Joanna, aged 10; and Joseph, aged 8, all burned to death at their home at George Station, near here, Sunday.

Carl W. Burk, the husband, was seriously burned about the back.

Mrs. Burk and all the children except Adam retired at the usual hour Saturday night. Mr. Burk, who was in Altoona during the day, until late, the lamp was burning in the kitchen for him. Before he went upstairs he turned it low. A lunch was left on the kitchen table for Adam, who is a stage hand at the Altoona opera house. It is not known what time Adam came home.

Mrs. Burk was awakened by a dense smoke in her room. She awoke her husband, who found the kitchen ablaze. Burk's clothing was ignited, but he rolled on the floor to extinguish the flames. He then ran for the assistance of neighbors, but when they arrived there was no hope of saving the house or rescuing the inmates. Burk was sent away to a hospital crazed with grief. The house was soon consumed. The bodies, charred and blackened, were recovered. One corpse could not be distinguished from the other. The general opinion is that Adam forgot to extinguish the light in the lamp when he retired and that the lamp was in some way upset, possibly by the family dog.
